

Name of the Organization

- Create college prep programs to focus on first-generation college students in low-income areas.
- Provide inspiration as part of the college prep program.

- College prep program engages first-generation college students and their parents.
- College prep program administers scholarships to help youth pay for application fees, testing, etc.

- All potential first-generation students in Milwaukee understand the benefits of higher education and have the confidence, skills, and funding to access educational levels of their choice.

- More low-income students in Milwaukee will become first-generation college students and complete their degrees.

MISSION

The Smith Organization seeks to create opportunities for Milwaukee's youth to pursue higher education